Jill Daughhete joined KHC in August 2016 as a Quality Improvement Advisor for the Practice Transformation Network (PTN) in Kansas. She works in the field with practices to assess clinical performance, identify gaps in best practice and recommend methods to improve patient care processes and quality outcomes. Jill currently serves as Co-Champion for the national TCPI Small Rural and Medically Underserved Affinity Group which is dedicated to providing education, resources and advocacy for small, rural and medically underserved practices across the United States.

Jill most recently worked as a director of Revenue Cycle Management Services with Pulse Systems, Wichita, where she managed the organization's RCM Services in both the Wichita and Kansas City divisions. She has extensive experience as a practice administrator for physician practices with an emphasis in Rural Health programs. She has served on the Kansas Medical Group Managers Association Board of Directors and has held both chair and vice chair of the Kansas Association of Rural Health Clinics.

Jill attended Southwestern College in Winfield, KS, majoring in business administration and Spanish. She is a Certified Medical Practice Executive (CMPE), and is pursuing Fellowship with the American College of Medical Practice Executives (ACMPE).
