Josh Mosier joined KHC in February 2016 as a Quality Improvement Advisor for the Practice Transformation Network (PTN) in Kansas. Mosier will work with physician practices to assess performance and identify strategies and best practices to support clinicians in the transition of a delivery and payment system built on volume to one based on performance.

Josh most recently worked as a project director for the Kansas Hospital Association (KHA), overseeing the Healthy Kansas Hospitals initiative. Prior to joining KHA, he served as executive director for the Kansas Campus Compact, a collaborative effort to improve communications among Kansas colleges and universities, their faculties, students and communities.

Josh holds a Master of Science degree in Mass Communications, a Master's in Public Administration and a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology, all from Kansas State University, Manhattan, Ks.
